1.Product Overview

Name : The Ordinary

Brief History

The Ordinary was developed under Deciem, the Toronto based beauty company founded in the year 2013 by Brandon Truaxe, an industry visionary who had previously launched Euoko and indeed Labs. The company was built to defy traditional beauty and ensure that the customer wasn't paying for a long chain of mark-ups . In August 2016 , Deciem launched 'The Ordinary' with an impressive 27 product lineup , including formulas that remain best sellers nearly a decade later.

Mission and vision

Mission

- Providing Transparency by offering clear communication about ingredients, formulations and pricing to empower consumers .
- Educating Consumers by guiding users into understanding their skin needs rather than being influenced by market trends.
- Ensuring Sustainability by providing dermatologically tested , high quality and eco -friendly products that aim to deliver real and gentle results.

Vision

- To foster and establish a beauty industry where effective and scientifically tested skincare is seen as "Ordinary " rather than luxury.
- To be a leading and trusted global skincare recognized for safety and a commitment to improving skin health.
- To ensure that everyone who battles with skin struggles feels comfortable in their own skin.

Target audience

- The brand targets ingredient focused , "skincare obsessed" consumers typically ranging from teenagers to adults (15 to 50+) who are also easily attracted to their budget friendly products.
- The brand also targets those who prefer honest marketing than luxury branding .

2. Website Goals and Objectives

Goals

- To educate consumers on ingredients to fight skin struggles.
- Ensure a fast experience for a global audience so everyone can have access to their products through a website.
- To improve service quality.

Objectives

- Increasing the time on site by 30% by adding a "How to use" page or guide on the
